Future Locally Produced Educational Programming:

- Kirkwood Production Group has been busy doing different type of education videos for the College. From history of the Community College to Getting Students Ready For College. The Kirkwood Channel is trying to get permission to air these videos. Hope to have good news next month.
- Right now when the college closes due to weather, we put up a PowerPoint screen telling the viewers that the college is closed. We leave this screen up all day, so we lose our programming for the day. The Kirkwood Channel is looking into purchasing a Video Graphic Information Display System, so we can crawl information and not lose our programming. We will start testing this system next week or after our Holiday Break.
- The Kirkwood Channel master control will not be manned from Dec. 24, 2009-Jan. 3, 2010.
